

Joker Biden's Dinner

On the night of April 30, 2022, the White House Correspondents Association held a dinner for members of the press, celebrities, and leading political figures including President Joe Biden. We are by far not the only ones who view Joker Biden as a clown, but when it was announced that he was going to play the comedian at the WHCA dinner, it was too obvious that this was a marker in time.

This dinner is part of the prophetic story of the fall of Babylon that is playing out before our eyes. You may wonder how such assertion can be made? Let's see what the evidence of the fulfillment shows. The Bible tells the original version of story in the fifth chapter of the book of Daniel:

Belshazzar the king made a great feast to a thousand of his lords, and drank wine before the thousand. (Daniel 5:1)

One could simply replace "Belshazzar the king" with "Joe Biden the President" and thus the story begins. Notice that the WHCA dinner was dominated by Democrats—the people who are Biden's "lords." And how many were in attendance? Over 2500—that is to say, thousands of his lords.

Belshazzar, whiles he tasted the wine, commanded to bring the golden and silver vessels which his father Nebuchadnezzar had taken out of the temple which was in Jerusalem; that the king, and his princes, his wives, and his concubines, might drink therein. (Daniel 5:2)

The WHCA dinner is a celebration of cooperation between the White House and the press, the latter being the "vessels" who carry the news and through whom the news flows out to the common people. Notice the relationship between the king and the vessels in the verse above: the king and his princes and wives "drink" from the vessels. This is to say, they put their "wine" into the vessels—or in other words, the White House prescribes what the press is allowed to say. They control what "wine" flows through their vessels—through their channels, their papers, their websites.

The speakers' frequent remarks about free speech and the first amendment at the WHCA dinner indeed sound very convincing when you hear them, but one can't help but notice the disturbing incongruity between their defense of liberty of the press within the walls of the Washington Hilton and their vociferous demands outside those walls to curb free speech on platforms like Twitter and the rest.

How can they distort the first amendment to the nation's constitution to apply only to press organs that are cozy with the White House and not to "the people" of the general public?

Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances. (Wikipedia)

Clearly the context of the law is the rights of "the people" over "the establishment." How dare the nation seek to put up "an establishment" called the Disinformation Governance Board to abridge the freedom of speech of the people in direct contradiction to the first amendment, while boasting of the country's first amendment freedoms!?

But let us come back to the topic. The WHCA event caught our attention precisely because it was held on April 30, 2022, the day of an important heavenly sign that we were able to decipher in light of Bible prophecy, as you know from our recent posts. There was a sign on that day involving a hand. We had understood that the partial solar eclipse represented the form of a man's hand as described in Ezekiel:

And one cherub stretched forth his hand from between the cherubims unto the fire that was between the cherubims, and took thereof, and put it into the hands of him that was clothed with linen: who took it, and went out. (Ezekiel 10:7)

A fuller interpretation of this vision can be found in Ezekiel's Cross, but what is striking in the context of the solar eclipse on the evening of the feast of the WHCA is the fact that a detached hand also makes an appearance in the Biblical type of Belshazzar's feast with a reference to the "candlestick" of the sun:

In the same hour came forth fingers of a man's hand, and wrote over against the candlestick upon the plaister of the wall of the king's palace: and the king saw the part of the hand that wrote. (Daniel 5:5)

The handwriting on the wall was the divine indication that the end had come for the kingdom of Babylon, while, unbeknown to Belshazzar, the army of Cyrus was already about to take the city that very night.

Similarly, the signs in heaven convey the same finality for antitypical Babylon today, including the United States. The solar eclipse marked the day when decisive actions would be taken that would set the course for the defeat of the city:

Putin to undergo cancer surgery, transfer power to ex-FSB chief: report

According to this report, it was leaked on April 30, 2022, that:

Putin will transfer control of Russia's government to Nikolai Patrushev, head of the Russian federal police's Security Council, while he is incapacitated during and after the procedure, according to a video from the mysterious Telegram channel "General SVR" on Saturday.

On the surface, this might sound like the usual course for a head of state who needs medical procedures, but normally in such a case the prime minister would assume the role of Acting President, not anyone else. The report explains:

In a Telegram post that appeared Thursday, it was alleged that Patrushev had had a two-hour “heart-to-heart” conversation with Putin.

“We know that Putin signaled to Patrushev that he considers him to be practically his only trusted ally and friend in the government,” the post claimed. “Additionally, the president promised that if his health takes a turn for the worse, actual control of the country will temporarily pass into Patrushev’s hands.”

But why this is concerning is expressed by the sources as follows:

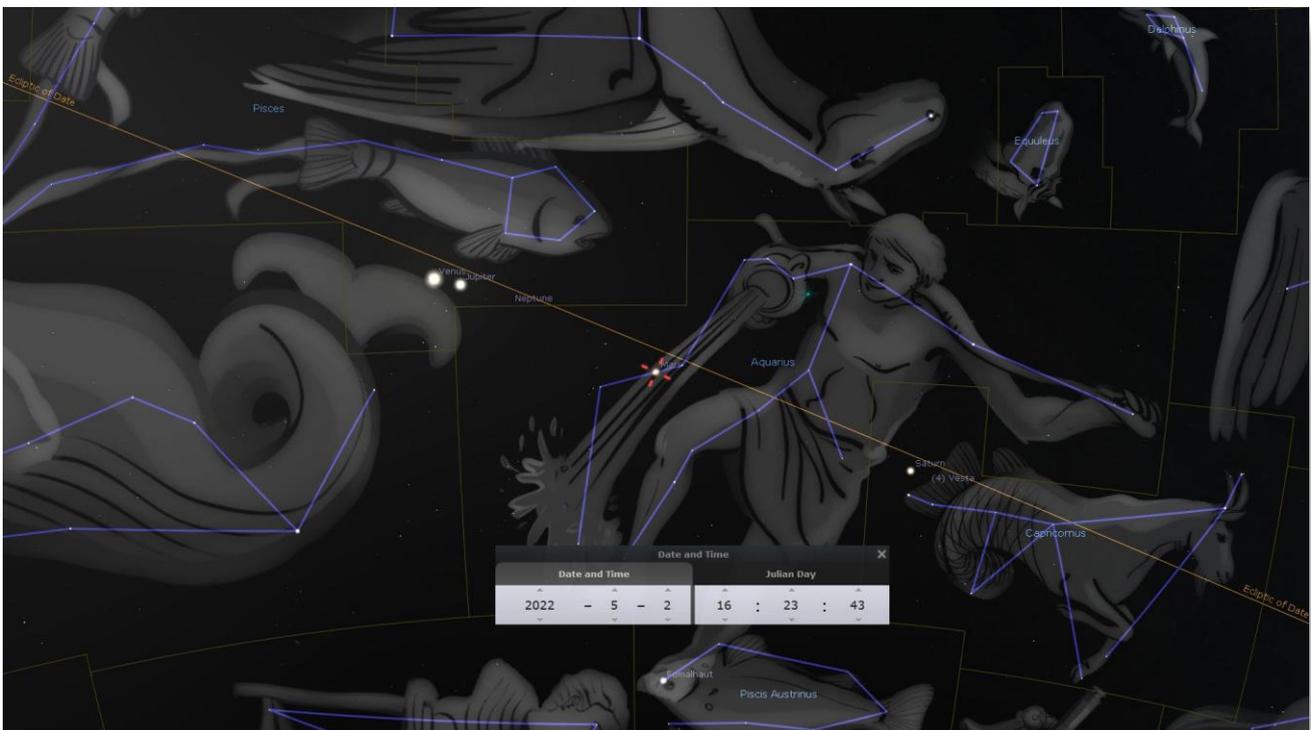

“I will say that this is the worst option,” the narrator adds. “Patrushev is an outright villain. He is no better than Vladimir Putin. Moreover, he is a more cunning, and I would say, more insidious person than Vladimir Putin. If he comes to power, Russians’ problems will only multiply.”

As for the timing of Putin’s medical procedures, the report above states that it was originally planned for the end of April, which apparently didn’t happen. For all we know, it could be any day now—and when it happens, Patrushev would get a few days in power.

The big question is, what will Patrushev do with the nation under his control during those days? We will offer some thoughts in a separate post involving a dream about a security officer (Patrushev?) that provides a graphic picture of where he lands. But suffice it for this post to say that the West is doing a pretty good job of giving advice to whoever is in charge of Russia as to what to do...

On May 2, 2022—the same day Putin’s medical situation hit the news—it was reported by German media that Expert opinion sees training of Ukrainian soldiers as participation in the war . This opinion comes from western People’s Rights experts on the fact that training on the use of the weapons being provided for war—by the US in Germany in this case—is already participating in the war.

To illustrate the point, the signs in heaven on this day show Mars, as the second cluster of grapes, being thrown down by the water column of Aquarius into the winepress of the wrath of God—rinsed and ready to be trampled.

But more to the present context, this represents Cyrus' army (Mars—the war planet) marching along the dry riverbed of the Euphrates into the gates of Babylon.

On May 2, when the above information hit the press, Mars was directly on the constellation line. It is now official news—declared by the allied experts—that the West is participating in a proxy war with Russia. Not only are they recklessly piling loads of tinder on the giant bonfire pit of World War 3, but through the press the West is even bending over backwards to hand Russia the box of matches to ignite it!

This brings us back to the topic of the WHCA dinner, and that the date of this year's event is significant in pagan ways, too. The last Saturday of April, on which the WHCA dinner is normally held, so happened to be the last day of the month, which means it fell on the eve of May 1—the pagan feast of Beltane, which is celebrated as Labor Day in a great number of countries in the world. However, since Labor Day would fall on the weekend, some countries postpone it till May 2 in order to maintain the long weekend it is intended to offer—the very day when all this news about Patrushev and the West's objective involvement in the war hit the press.

Because of its Protestant roots, however, the United States has historically avoided celebrating any holiday on May Day, observing Labor Day in September instead. But at the WHCA dinner, just as Belshazzar was worshiping Bel (or Baal), so President Biden and his guests were worshiping Bel on the pagan holiday of Bel-tane. So, again, we see another aspect of how this feast fulfills the biblical type—God was disregarded, and the works of man were praised according to pagan traditions.

Then they brought the golden vessels that were taken out of the temple of the house of God which was at Jerusalem; and the king, and his princes, his wives, and his concubines, drank in them. They drank wine, and praised the gods of gold, and of silver, of brass, of iron, of wood, and of stone. (Daniel 5:3-4)

This was evident as the speakers at the WHCA dinner repeatedly praised “the vaccine” for their dinner, the same vaccine that the powerful leaders in attendance are pushing on the world to defile the children of God who are the temple of the Holy Ghost. The requirement for every WHCA dinner attendee to be vaccinated and boosted speaks loudly to their desire to rid their world of all unvaccinated people.

For the Daniels among men, there is only one appropriate course of action: leave Babylon's riches and honors to those who will be destroyed with it (whether by vaccine from inside or by nuclear war from outside):

Then Daniel answered and said before the king, Let thy gifts be to thyself, and give thy rewards to another; yet I will read the writing unto the king, and make known to him the interpretation. (Daniel 5:17)

Duty's call is to make known the interpretation of the signs of our times and opt out of the rewards Babylon offers. Like Daniel, we have to say that “time is up” for Babylon, and Joe Biden's banquet shows it. Only a fool could hold a feast of levity at a time when powerful nations—including his own—are mutually threatening the annihilation of humanity. Is a bit off taste—even for a comedian.
