

The Seventh Plague

Written by Robert Dickinson
For the church of Philadelphia on April 30, 2022

Brothers and sisters,

When the 40 NATO and allied nations met at Ramstein Air Base in Germany, we recognized that this is another “summit of the hosts” or “Har-mageddon.” and we deduced that the sixth plague had thus culminated in that event:

*And he gathered them together into a place called in the Hebrew tongue Armageddon.
(Revelation 16:16)*

However, if this new meeting is the call to Armageddon, then the previous meetings which we had understood as fulfilling this verse are no longer the fulfillment, and thus the conclusion drawn at that time is no longer valid, and the second phase of the war in Ukraine is not the actual battle of Armageddon, as we understood then. The battle of Armageddon must now come after the “summit” of the 40 nations. What clues do we have about when the battle will come?

For one, Putin’s response to the meeting of the nations and their decisions to support Ukraine with heavy arms was his statement about a “lighting fast” response. This continues to be emphasized, as Russia deems the meeting of the 40 nations as an act of war, and he has expressed his preparedness to fight even to the point of mutually assured destruction . For the Russians, it is a divine obligation to fight to the end, because they believe they are morally right and that they will thus go to heaven by dying in this war, whereas the immoral West will not.

Logic would suggest that the actual battle of Armageddon be found in the seventh plague. When will the seventh plague begin, or has it begun already? As the door of mercy has already closed, one might expect the description of the seventh plague to play out during these seven days that follow, while the “cloud” (represented by comet PanSTARRS) is in the temple (represented by Taurus).

And the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God, and from his power; and no man was able to enter into the temple, till the seven plagues of the seven angels were fulfilled. (Revelation 15:8)

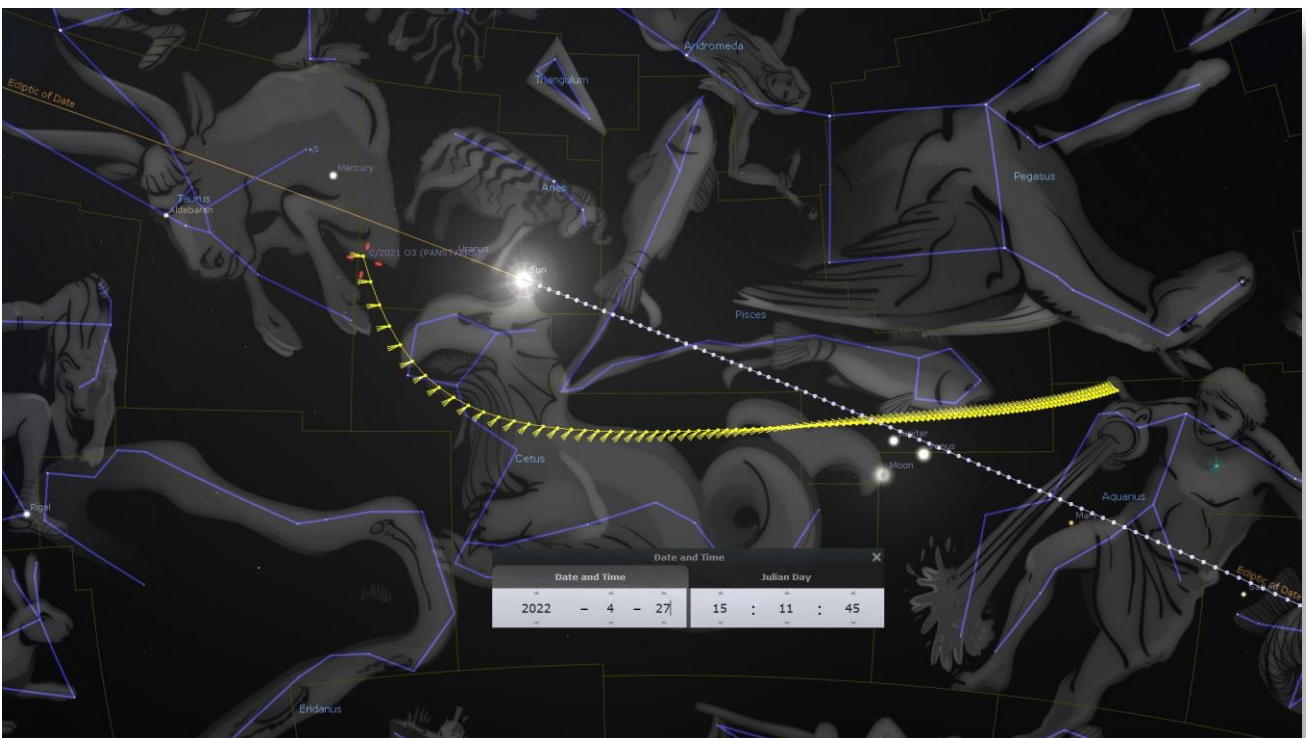

During that time, we are shut inside antitypical Noah's ark, awaiting the hand of God to lift us up and save us from the "rain" on the eighth day, which closes out the seventh plague:

And there fell upon men a great hail out of heaven, every stone about the weight of a talent: and men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail; for the plague thereof was exceeding great. (Revelation 16:21)

If the seventh plague is being poured out during these seven days in the ark from April 27 to May 3, 2022, then we should be able to interpret the text in light of current events:

And the seventh angel poured out his vial into the air; and there came a great voice out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, It is done. (Revelation 16:17)

Indeed, at this time the sun (the great light) is in Aries (representing the Lamb).

This voice is described as coming from the throne because the Lamb has His scepter in hand, the sign traced by the letter lamed which forms the Shepherd's staff, which was completed with PanSTARRS in Aries.

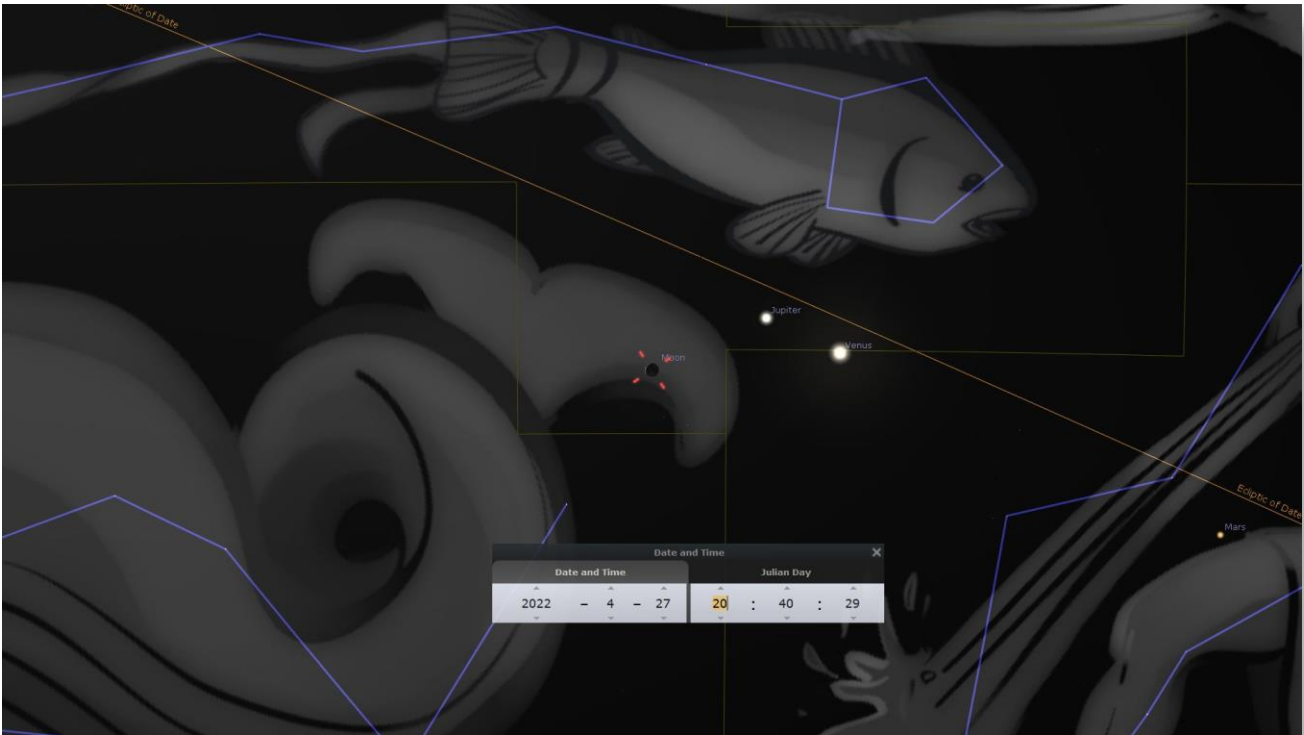

The voice has spoken "It is done" as the time of probation has closed for the world on April 27, which also corresponded to the scene of Joshua's judgment described in Zechariah 3. So, it seems that the seventh plague has indeed begun.

This plague—unlike the others—is poured out "into the air." Bible study aids cross-reference this verse to Ephesians 2:2, which describes Satan as the prince of the power of the air:

Wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience: (Ephesians 2:2)

The powers of the air are the demons, the fallen angels, and their prince is Satan. Therefore, pouring the plague into the air signifies that the plague is poured onto the head of Satan, who is represented in the present context of the heavenly symbolism as Cetus, the Leviathan in the sea. This was illustrated and corroborated by our experience very vividly as the moon, coming from the judgment scene of Zechariah, passed across the little “river” stretch of Pisces “over” the constellation of Cetus.

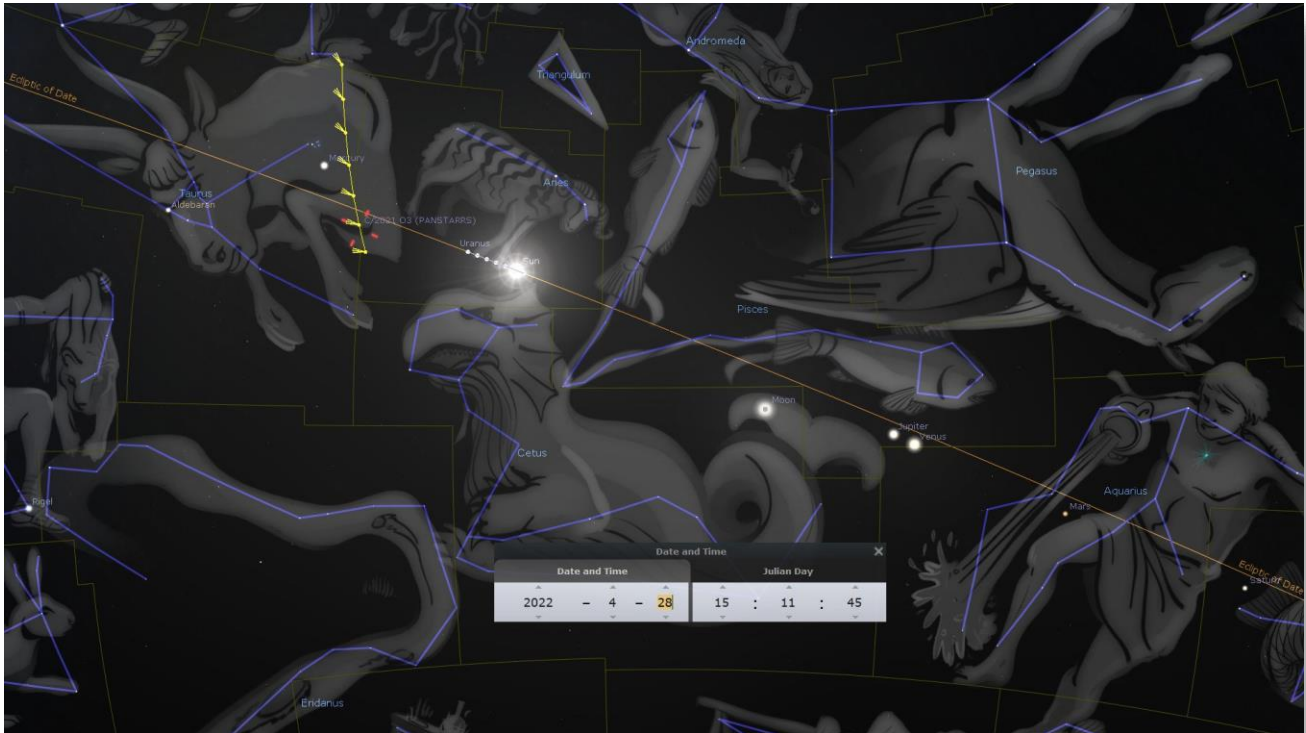

Furthermore, we are given clues about world events when the seventh plague is poured out. It immediately struck us that Putin’s threatened “lightning” response could refer to one of the mentions of lightning in Revelation, and indeed it does:

And there were voices, and thunders, and lightnings; and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since men were upon the earth, so mighty an earthquake, and so great.
(Revelation 16:18)

Putin’s lightning-fast response threat was directed especially toward Germany because of its intention to send the Gepard (“Cheetah”) air defense tanks. He threatened them before the vote so that they could have a chance to change their mind in Berlin before he feels obliged to bomb Berlin (and all of Germany), where the throne of Satan is, as the prince of the air—the leading nation of the papal-satanic beast of the European Union. Putin’s new “Satan II” is on its way to do away with the old “Satan I” who rules the West!

Do you hear the voices (votes) and thunders (hot discussions of the political leaders) and see the lightnings (threats of lightning-fast response) associated with the seventh plague? Has there ever been a time in earth’s history where the people have been trembling, shaking for fear for the scale of destruction (or better said total annihilation) that is about to happen? Is this not an earthquake such as never was?

Therefore, the comet has now moved into Taurus, the aleph, symbolizing the Father.

The scepter of the Lamb is finished, Jesus has declared “it is done,” and the time has come for the Father to pour out His undiluted wrath upon the world.

This brings us to the question of the smoke in the temple, which we correctly identified as this very time when all the plagues would be poured out without mixture. However, recognizing that our salvation from this world comes after seven days inside the figurative ark must be reconciled to the fact that we are not appointed to wrath.

For God hath not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ, (1 Thessalonians 5:9)

How can the wrath of God be falling before the rapture? The answer is simply in the way the cup of God’s wrath is filled, as we’ve explained in the past :

And I saw another sign in heaven, great and marvellous, seven angels having the seven last plagues; for in them is filled up the wrath of God. (Revelation 15:1)

The seven plague vials are first poured into the cup of God’s wrath, and only after His cup is full, then He pours it out with all seven plagues compounded at once:

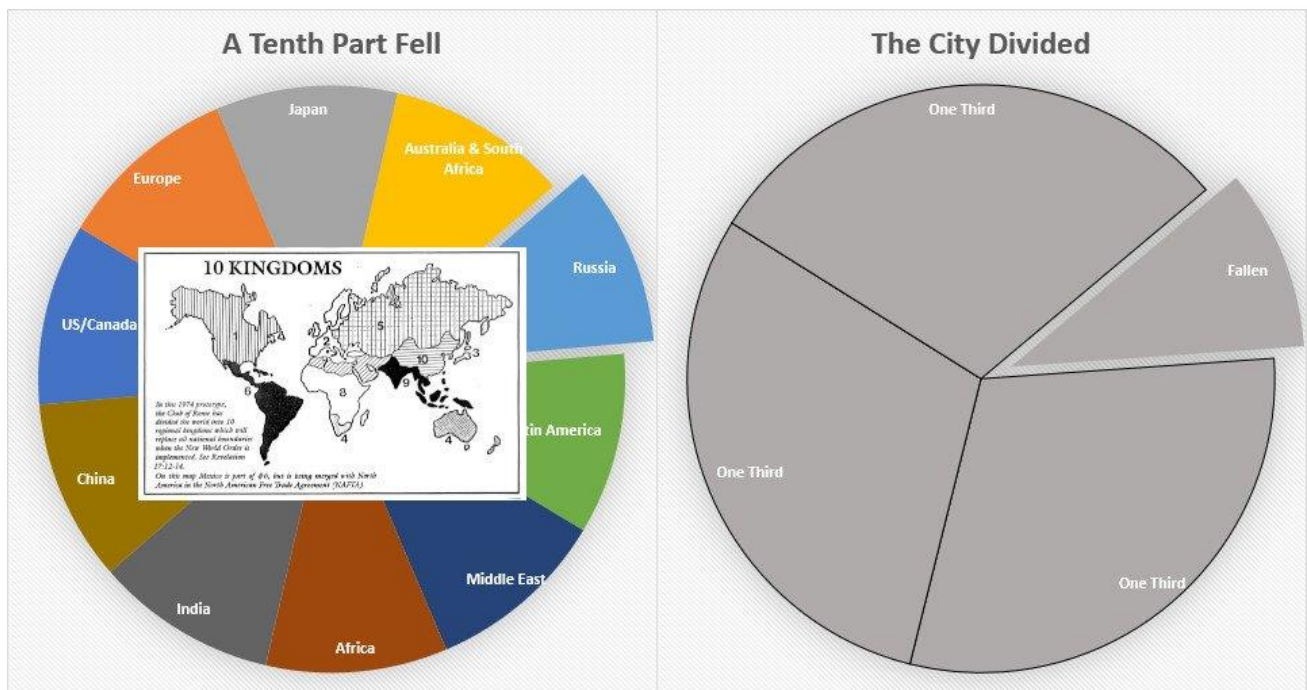

And the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and great Babylon came in remembrance before God, to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath. (Revelation 16:19)

In no other way can it be explained how the cup of wrath is poured out only in the seventh plague itself! The seventh plague text describes this process of filling the last few drops into the God’s cup of wrath during these seven days in the “ark” from April 27 to May 3, 2022, until last of all the hail rains down in the form of the “wine of the fierceness of His wrath” from which the saints are saved. This is the point when the rapture takes place to save God’s people.

So, we have already started to see how the text has been playing out. The next events to consider are those in the verse above: the dividing of the city and the falling of the cities of the nations. In the night from April 27 to 28, Russia announced and Ukraine admitted for the first time in this war that the Russians took many Ukrainian cities. These are the cities of the nation that represents the spring of humanity—thus fulfilling the prophecy that the cities of the nations (or peoples) fell. With this fulfillment in mind, we should be able to understand how the great city (antitypical Babylon) was divided into three parts, since that should come first according to the prophecy.

If one just takes a survey of the biggest contention spots around the globe, it is not difficult to see what the three biggest players and their interests are. Russia is the oddball—it is the one of the ten Jesuit divisions of the world that fell out of unity with the rest of the world.

Everywhere and on every side the rest of the world is treating Russia with isolation in an attempt to force it into falling in line rather than being a “pariah.” But Russia’s determination and aggression has made it the dividing wedge whose selfish pursuits are rubbing off on others and causing further division. This dynamic can be seen in how Russia cut gas deliveries to Poland and Bulgaria, which is aimed at dividing the European Union, which called it “blackmail.” NATO, as we’ve seen, is trying desperately to keep Europe together.

With Russia as the tenth part of the city (that fell in relation to the second woe), this leaves nine parts remaining to be divided into three parts, made simple since nine is divisible by three without any remainder. One of those three divisions is NATO and Europe, then what are the other two?

Also looming large on the horizon is China’s claim on Taiwan. China is watching Russia’s tactics with Ukraine to perfect its strategy. Thus, once again, Russia can be seen as the dividing wedge; their tactics in Ukraine are emboldening and teaching China how to win in pursuit of its own interests.

Finally, as everyone knows, there is the ever-present contention in the Middle East, where the entire Arab world takes issue with the modern state of Israel. Russia is also “inspiring” the “aspiring” nuclear powers in this area (particularly Iran). So, in one way or another, each of these three divisions of Great Babylon have their divided interests and are being spurred on by the Russian aggression against Ukraine.

As we see this apocalyptic drama playing out before our eyes, it is not difficult to understand how the saints—by the time they reach the Orion Nebula—are able to praise God for His true and righteous judgments, because they have seen the smoke of her burning.

And after these things I heard a great voice of much people in heaven, saying, Alleluia; Salvation, and glory, and honour, and power, unto the Lord our God: For true and righteous are his judgments: for he hath judged the great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and hath avenged the blood of his servants at her hand. And again they said, Alleluia. And her smoke rose up for ever and ever. (Revelation 19:1-3)

It is after the fall of the cities that the Bible says that God remembers to punish Babylon:

And the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and great Babylon came in remembrance before God, to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath. (Revelation 16:19)

God is now calling to mind all the abominations committed by the Babylonian powers and participants of this world, and with this, the decision has been made to deal in the fierceness of His wrath, which will be ultimately manifested in the great hail that closes the seventh plague.

And every island fled away, and the mountains were not found. And there fell upon men a great hail out of heaven, every stone about the weight of a talent: and men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail; for the plague thereof was exceeding great. (Revelation 16:20-21)

When even the British Isles are being threatened with total annihilation in 202 seconds, it is fitting to say “every island” fled away. This is how far we have come in our experience to date. And next?

The hail of the seventh plague is also foreshadowed in the heavenly symbolism. Not only is the partial eclipse on April 30, 2022, the sign of the man in linen from Ezekiel 10 taking the fire from the altar, but the scattering of the burning coals over the antitypical World City is also foreshadowed on May 4-5, 2022, when the Eta Aquariids meteor shower reaches its peak. This is after Mars—representing NATO as the second cluster of grapes after Venus (as the EU)—will have crossed the water column and been thrown into the winepress of the wrath of God.

The radiant of this meteor shower—the center from which the meteors emanate—moves significantly day by day, but when the shower peaks on May 4-5, the radiant will be precisely in the mouth of Aquarius’ water pitcher.

The symbolism is too obvious: the Almighty who once destroyed the world by opening the windows of heaven and pouring out the Deluge, will now open the windows of heaven again to empty His cup of wrath upon the earth—not pouring out water but fire!

And the stars of heaven fell unto the earth, even as a fig tree casteth her untimely figs, when she is shaken of a mighty wind. And the heaven departed as a scroll when it is rolled together; and every mountain and island were moved out of their places. (Revelation 6:13-14)

Will this be the hail of ICBM-delivered warheads? Or will God intervene with treasures of hail of His own making? This hail can be fulfilled in any number of ways, as we've examined in past articles. One can draw his or her own conclusions as the events unfold, but what is important is to be in the ark of safety when the rain begins to descend—and that is a decision that you hopefully already made before the ark door was shut.
